The Fox and the Bear

In a sunny forest there lived a clever fox and a strong bear. One day the fox wanted to have a race. The bear agreed, and they decided to run to the biggest tree in the forest. All the animals came to watch the race. The fox ran very fast at the start. The bear ran slowly. It was difficult to believe that the bear could win.

As the race went on, the fox saw beautiful flowers. The fox loved flowers and stopped to look at them. The bear continued running. The bear came to the biggest tree first and won the race.

The fox was sad because he wanted to win. The bear was happy but he was also kind. He told the fox that it was important to be focused on the race. The fox learned a lesson that day. The fox and the bear became good friends and often raced together, always helping each other.
